Much of the character of the buildings has been retained with exposed timbers and subtle nooks and crannies along with incorporating modern day living with many features such as;

- Entrance halls, where applicable enjoy black and white feature tiled floors
- No detail has been excluded including the stainless steel polished electrical sockets
- Gas fired radiator central heating
- Bosch gas hob, oven & fridge freezer
- Lamona washer/dryer
- Quartz work tops
- Commercial grade oak laminate wood flooring to living areas
- Bedrooms carpeted with high quality wool carpets
- LED lighting to minimise ongoing costs
- Shaver points
- Demisting mirrors to bathroom with oak grain finished vanity lights
- Double glazed windows

In short homes that exude quality.

Kestrel Court is located in a beautiful location on edge of the popular quintessential village of Sherborne St John. These homes are wonderfully placed for walking opportunities such as Morgaston Woods The Vyne - Morgaston Woods - Woodland Trust which are part of The Vyne a National Trust property. The thriving village includes The Swan a vibrant pub & eatery, a village shop, village hall along with sports field and pavilion all of which are short walk away and contributing factors for this established village community.

Sherborne St John, is located in close proximity to the Basingstoke Hospital, town centre with a regular bus service from the village. Easy access to the ring road in turn provide access to Reading, Newbury and Winchester along with both M3 & M4 motorways. Basingstoke Railway station has great links to London Waterloo (46 minutes), cross country to Manchester, the South Coast and the West Country.
