- Sought after location of Colehill

DESCRIPTION:

As you enter the home, you have a generous entrance hall that gives access to all principal bedrooms, the family bathroom, and the sitting room.

Bedroom one is a large, bright double bedroom with a front aspect and two alcoves offering space for storage. Two further bedrooms are both currently children's bedrooms, and offer good space with ample room for beds, desks, and storage.

The sitting room currently has space for three and two seater sofas, and is the main reception area. It also provides access to the dining area with its glass atrium ceiling allowing natural light into the home alongside its large, double glazed bifold doors out to the garden. An archway from the dining area gives access to a kitchen which has a fitted oven with a grill above, a dishwasher, and space for a washing machine, alongside a range of storage cupboards and large, double glazed doors to the garden.

Outside, you have a patio area leading via steps up to an elevated garden laid to artificial grass and surrounded by mature borders.

Set to the side of the property, there is a garden room currently used as a home office and storage area which has power, lighting, UPVC windows and doors.

LOCATION:

Colehill offers first and middle schools, a church, a library, local shops including a Co-Op/post office, and scenic walks in Cannon Hill Plantation. Bus services connect to the market town of Wimborne Minster (approximately 2 miles) with its busy shopping centre and wide range of amenities, and to the coastal town of Bournemouth which has a mainline rail link to London Waterloo.
