Description

This delightful mixed-use property on Haverstock Hill, NW3 presents exceptionally well and has been meticulously maintained by the current owners. In an outstanding position almost equidistant between Belsize Park and Chalk Farm, the subject property offers a truly unique opportunity to a potential investor.

The above residential (C3) dwelling still retained by the current ownership has undergone a full refurbishment within the past 5 years and presents superbly. This has enabled the subject property to consistently achieve a 'market-leading' rent. The property is offered as a single investment or as part of a company sale to include two additional freeholds, further details available upon request.

Location

Located just a moment away from both Chalk Farm and Belsize Park underground stations in addition to overground services from Kentish Town West. Both Camden Market and Primrose Hill are nearby giving host to a number of well positioned visitors on a daily basis. In addition to this both The Regent's Park & Hampstead Heath are available for the enjoyment of the occupiers at this delightful location.
