It is situated in the pretty hamlet of Wolverton Common, which lies between the major towns of Basingstoke and Newbury.

The property has a wide central hallway leading through to the kitchen/breakfast room. It has an inset hob with a wide oven and grill below, and an integrated dishwasher and fridge.

The twin aspect lounge/diner offers a huge amount of space and has sliding doors out to the conservatory, which is timber framed with double glazed windows.

The bathroom has been stylishly fitted with Villeroy and Boch sanitary ware and has a panelled bath with a shower and screen over, low level wc and hand wash basin with fitted storage cupboards.

Parking is good here with a block paved driveway for four or five cars and a long attached garage that has power and light.

A particular feature of this home are the extensive gardens. The rear garden has a large paved terrace which is partly covered and is ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining. Beyond this are sweeping lawns between well stocked flower and shrub beds with a water feature cascading into a fishpond.
